LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair tonight and Sunday.

James Foley, with the Santa Fe at Winslow, is in the city, the guest of friends.

Monday, October 9, is the day of atonement. All of the Jewish stores will be closed.

Mrs. Herbert Romero has returned home from a visit to the ranch of Felipe Hubbell, near Isleta.

A. B. McGaffey returned this morning from a business trip to Thoreau, where the Horabin-McGaffey company has a large general store.

The Southwestern Brewery & Ice company has begun to make room for the building of a large brick addition to its plant in the north part of the city.

H. E. Byers, liveryman at Belen, passed through the city this morning en route to Las Vegas, where he goes on business and pleasure. He was accompanied by Mrs. Byers.

Richard P. Heller, postmaster and merchant at Cabazon, was in the city today to meet his brother, George G. Heller, of East St. Louis, Ill., who arrived from the east last night.

Judge Ellsworth Ingalls, United States attorney in Indian deputation claims in this territory, left last night for a visit to his old home in Atchison, Kan. He will be gone several weeks.

Mrs. Mabel Stevens-Himco left last night for Chicago, where she goes to enter a conservatory of music for the winter. It is rumored that Mrs. Himco may make her permanent home in the Windy City.

Harvey Worthington Loomis, one of the best known writers of Indian lore in the United States, and the author of a large number of popular Indian songs, was in the city between trains last night while en route east from the coast.

L. R. La Drielle, of Grand Rapids, Mich., will arrive here tonight. The gentleman is a brother of J. L. La Drielle, the well known architect, and he comes to this city for his health. He will probably remain here during the winter.

Edward Holmes Sickels, the blind musician, who will play at the concert at the Elks' ball room on Wednesday, October 11, is one of the best pianists in the country. The Ladies' Guild are arranging a good program and the house ought to be filled. Admission will be fifty cents.

Michael Glen Cuniff, managing editor of The World's Work, New York, is in the city. He was a pleasant caller at The Citizen office this morning, and will again call late this afternoon to secure some data from the "old timer" for a write up of Albuquerque and this section of New Mexico.

The Silver City Enterprise says: Miss Ida Bremen left last night for Phoenix where she will give a recital. She will also give a recital in Prescott, and probably in Albuquerque, and will then continue her journey to New York, where she will spend the winter in study of the pianoforte, under Eugene Haffley, the famous teacher.

United States fisheries car No. 3, in charge of Captain T. J. Pierce and crew, left last night for the east. Stops will be made at Lamy, to send a consignment of fish to Santa Fe, Rio Arriba and Taos counties, and one at Trinidad, to stock the streams of Colorado in that vicinity, after which the car will proceed to the fish hatchery at Necedo, Mo.

Dr. D. H. Carna, Dr. Kraft, George P. Hill and Forrest Parker will form a hunting party which will leave the city on Tuesday for the Gila country for a three weeks' outing. They will go as far as Magdalena by train, and there they will embark with ten saddle ponies, two wagons and cooks and hostlers. They will be joined at Magdalena by three other sportsmen.

Colonel W. H. Greer, president of the late twenty-fifth annual territorial fair, and I. B. Payne, one of the trusted employees of the fair, will leave the city tonight for Engle, where they will hunt for a few days. Plenty of doves and quails are on the Tornado del Muerto, and these two hunters will no doubt return to the city with a sack full. Mr. Payne will take along his fine hunting setter.

The Santa Fe New Mexican says: Mrs. Mary B. McKee of St. Louis, who has been a guest of Miss Mattie Williams of Albuquerque, for several weeks, was in the city today, en route from the Duke City to her home, via Denver. Miss Williams accompanied her to Santa Fe and returned to Albuquerque this afternoon. Miss McKee

If you are looking for something extra swell in ladies' footwear, we have just received a Patent Kid Button shoe with dull tops, extension soles, made on the new college last. They are perfect fitters and will give the proper finish to your new fall dress. Price, $4. C. May's shoe store, 314 West Railroad avenue.

Kee has been favorably impressed with New Mexico's climate and scenery, and expects to return next summer to spend a number of weeks in the Capital City.

The funeral of little Sammy Akers, the 4-year-old son of Mrs. Mary Akers, of South Second street, was held from the Immaculate Conception church at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The little fellow had been sick for two weeks, and death resulted from a complication of kidney troubles. The remains were laid to rest in Santa Barbara cemetery. Many floral offerings adorned the casket. Mrs. Akers and children have the sympathy of her many friends in their sad bereavement.

W. C. Carpenter, one of the well known and efficient clerks at the Bank of Commerce, today received notice that his brother, Louis Allen Carpenter, was joined in marriage to Miss Maude P. Wales, the ceremony occurring on Wednesday, October 4, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Snowberger, at Newton, Kan. The happy groom is a popular farmer of Kansas, and he and his bride will be at home at Sedgwick, Kan., at the residence of A. B. Wales, after October 8.

Colonel R. E. Twitchell, the assistant New Mexico counselor for the Santa Fe railroad, with headquarters at Las Vegas, is in the territorial metropolis on business, and will no doubt liquidate the debt for lodging left behind by the Las Vegas base ball club, before returning to that town. The colonel was sick with neuralgia during the recent fair at Las Vegas, but that made no difference—it is understood that the fair was a great success.

Joseph Barnett this morning received information from his trainer, Ollie Frost, at Winfield, Kan., stating that Hallina Morgan secured first money in the 3-year-old class, but that Stranger O. went wrong in the free-for-all pace and the best he could do was to get fourth place. Mr. Frost says that he will bring the St. Elmo stables to this city and the horses and trainer should reach here about the middle of next week.

Elston E. Jones' former schoolmates here at the University of New Mexico and at the New Mexico School of Mines at Socorro, will be pleased to learn that he has been elected president of the junior class of the Missouri School of Mines at Rolla, where he is now attending school for the third year. The young man is a son of Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Jones of this city. He will finish at the Missouri state school next year.

Julian Martin, a painter in the employ of C. A. Hudson, was the victim of a painful accident yesterday afternoon. Martin was riding along Railroad avenue on a bicycle, and in attempting to pass in front of a wagon, his wheel slipped on the wet pavement and he was thrown violently to the ground, directly in front of the approaching team. Beyond a few cuts and bruises he was not seriously hurt.

It is rumored that an effort will be made to enjoin the city of Albuquerque from standing the expense of the defense of Policeman William Wagner, who was indicted by the grand jury upon two counts of assault with a deadly weapon and assault with intent to kill, preferred by one Romero, of Old Albuquerque. The case will come up for trial some time during the present term of court.

A WORD TO DOVE SHOOTERS

"It shall be unlawful to kill, trap, snare, injure or destroy any turtle-dove within the territory of New Mexico, except that such birds may be killed with a gun only during the period commencing with the 1st day of August and ending the 30th day of September of each year."

The foregoing is an exact copy of the session laws of New Mexico governing the shooting of doves, and local sports who insist on killing these birds since the closing of the season had better beware. The unsavory penalty provided for such violation is as follows:

"A fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 or an imprisonment of not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or both."

On your way home Saturday night, drop into the Zeiger Cafe, have a cold bottle, some of our free lunch, and go home happy.

New Tailor Shop.
A. J. Morelli, the well known tailor has reopened a tailor shop on North First street, where he is ready to clean, press and repair ladies' and gentlemen's suits made to order. Patronage of former customers solicited.

Harry Sonier Here.
Harry Sonier, the well known professional ball pitcher, is in the city and will probably remain permanently. Harry, for several seasons, pitched ball in the Interstate league, and later for Indianapolis in the American association. Last season, during the preliminary games, Harry was unfortunate in breaking his leg in a game with Kansas City. He was in excellent condition, pitching winning ball, and Manager Watkins was sorry to lose him. He pitched a few games for the Albuquerque Browns three years ago and was returned an easy winner, at all times having his opponents at his mercy.

The finest lunch, regularly Saturday night, is at the White Elephant. Attend at about 9 to 9:30.
